VOL. XVIII] FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1818. [No. 5137.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of b'lood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric'l affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1818.

From the Boston Centinel.

☞There is more wit, pith and poetry in the following ballad, from the Mobile Gazette, than are usually found in the light poetry of the times. The hit will be seen to be aimed at the city of Blakely, the rival city of the Mobile.

AN ODE,

Wherein the Lyrick Bard warneth his fellow citizens of the dangers attending commerce and agriculture, and pointeth out a short and sure road to wealth.

Merchant! I think it time to stop,
When every house becomes a shop,
For Groceries or Dry Goods;
If all men undertake to sell,
It's somewhat difficult to tell
Who can be found to buy goods.

Our planters too, I'm much afraid,
Will find their labor poorly paid,
When they depend on cotton;
It grows luxuriantly, I grant,
But what avails this thriving plant,
If every bowl proves rotten.

Let such as feel a proper pride,
Set those ignoble trades aside—
For he's beneath one's pity,
Who puts up with the merchant's toil,
Or meanly stoops to grub the soil,
When he can own a city.

What, own a city! you'll exclaim,
Yes, own the spot, that's just the same,
On which the place must stand;
For if on maps it's once laid down,
It's just as genuine a town
As any in the land.

Town-Making now is quite a trade,
Of which the rules are ready made,
For those who stand in need:
Thus when a sea-port is intended,
If these ingredients be blended,
It cannot but succeed.

First choose an elevated bluff,
Just where the river's deep enough
For ships of la gest mould;
(If there should be a bar below,
O'er which these vessels cannot go,
The fact need not be told.)

You next must find a limpid spring,
For this is an important thing,
And answers vastly well
To lengthen out the wondrous tale,
And aid, when other reasons fail,
To make the city sell.

The most important point, perhaps,
Lies in the drawing of the maps;
The painter there must try,
By mingling yellow, red and green,
To make the most delightful scene
That ever met the eye.

The site itself must not be known,
That no description but your own
May shine forth in the papers;
You then may raise an eastern breeze,
Or any other wind you please,
To drive off noxious vapors.

Of this obscure spot you may swear
There never was a purer air;
And if you've not believ'd,
At least you cannot be belied,
For none can prove that men have died
Where no man ever liv'd.

This puffing must not be omitted,
For where you'll find one man that's
To think and act alone— [fitted
You'll find a thousand timid fools,
Just form'd, 'twould seem, to be his
And do as he has done. [tools,

'Tis when the rage is at its height,
The knowing ones will quit the site,
While those that stop behind,
Of this desertion can't complain,
For what they lose in wealth, they gain
In knowledge of mankind.

A statement laid before the emperor of Russia relative to the condition of Moscow, shows that since the retreat of the French there have been built or repaired in that city, churches and buildings destined for divine worship 348; dwelling-houses 3137 of stone and 5551 of wood; booths and shops 5102 of stone and 447 of wood. The present population of Moscow is 312,000, of whom 197,182 are males, and 114,818 females.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, January 29, 1818.

The bill for recovering fugitive servants and slaves again (as I foresaw) has consumed a day, and was reported yesterday at a late hour. An amendment was proposed by Mr. Rich, to prevent negroes, &c. from being transported from state to state until evidence has been given before a magistrate of their being slaves, and of their being the property of the person by whose authority they are to be transported. The salutary tendency of this provision in preventing kidnapping is obvious, and is rendered more efficient by a penalty of ten thousand dollars.—Mr. Storrs, however, thought it inadequate to the object, and moved an amendment to it, to this effect, that if any person having no claim shall procure a certificate or warrant of his owning any individual with intention to arrest and transport any person not in the condition of a slave, he shall be punished with imprisonment not exceeding fifteen years, and fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both, at the discretion of the court. Mr. Pindall advocated Mr. Storrs' amendment. After some observations by Mr. Rich in defence of his amendment, the amendment of Mr. Storrs was carried by a large majority, and the amendment as amended passed and makes part of the bill.

An attempt was then made by Mr. Fuller to get rid of the bill by striking out the first section. On this proposition Mr. Strong, Mr. Hopkinson and Mr. Holmes spoke, but Mr. Clay opposed it with such powers of eloquence and argument that the motion was negatived;—and the bill was reported at nearly five o'clock, when the house adjourned.

The theatrical notice in yesterday's Gazette, gives us an additional proof (if more proofs were wanting) of the disposition of the managers to go any lengths in promoting our amusement and gratification. Let any one look at the alterations in the Theatre, and reflect for a moment on the enormous expense to which the managers are subjecting themselves to bring forward the equestrian company, and he cannot fail to hope that the expectations of the managers may be realized in the liberality of a generous

PUBLIC.

IMPORTANT.

Extract of a letter from a person of the highest respectability in London, to his friend in Philadel'a. dated Dec. 5.

The British government has at length agreed, at the request of the allied powers of Europe, to become the mediator between Spain and her colonies.

There is no truth in the Savannah report of American vessels having been detained at Havana.

ANOTHER NEW STATE.

A bill is now before congress for conferring the privileges of a state on the territory of Illinois, and admitting it into the union.

A resolution is now before the legislature of Pennsylvania for the appointment of a committee "to enquire into the expediency of appropriating a certain sum of money for the purchase of Bibles without comment, to be distributed among the poor and necessitous of the commonwealth, and that they make a report accordingly."

DEAF AND DUMB.

It appears by the report of the secretary of state, founded on the returns from the selectmen of the several towns, of the number and situation of the deaf and dumb in the state of Massachusetts, that the whole number is 254, of whom 139 are males and 115 females—150 are under 21 years of age—20 are over 50 years old, and 8 are over 70—35 have estates sufficient, or have near friends who are able to afford them a comfortable subsistence—219 are poor, or the children of poor parents.

Was killed at the farm of Mr. Matthew Tilghman, a hog, 2 years and 8 months old, weighing 469 1-2 pounds, the leaf fat 40 1 2 pounds—length of the hog 6 feet 2 1 2 inches, girth 6 feet 2 3-4 inches.

[Easton (Md.) Gaz.

Extract of a letter from a farmer in Frederick county to his friend in Balt.

There is a great complaint among the farmers about the yield of their crops;—we find that they fall very far short of what we expected from the appearance at harvest. If the merchants in your city look for a large supply of flour from this county, they will be very much disappointed. I can with truth say that my crop will fall short nearly a third of what I ought to have made from the straw stacked and housed.

The English newspapers contain an account of a smart shock of an earthquake at St. Helena. Napoleon, we are told, attempted to leave his residence on the occasion, but was prevented, it is said, by the sentinels; who, perhaps, thought the earthquake a mere trick of Napoleon's to effect his escape.

[Washington Gaz.

In the Franconian Mercury there is the following from Vienna, of the 4th October: "A note addressed to all the European powers, by the cabinet of St. Petersburg, in respect to the affairs of America, excites great attention, on account of the precision with which it is drawn up."

It is said that the British government has suggested its intention to give permission to any of the followers of Bonaparte at St. Helena to quit that island who may apply for leave to do so.

PRIZE OF BEEF.

The beef of the ox Magnus, which gained the premium at Brighton in October last, was exhibited for sale on Monday in Fanuiel Hall.

Its weight:

Quarters	437	Hide	142
"	426	Tallow	287
"	358
"	344	Total	1994

Three of our wealthy fellow-citizens have purchased 200 wt. each at 50 cents per lb. The beef is extremely fine.

From the Baltimore Federal Gazette.

Extract from a letter, written by a respectable American gentleman now in England, dated Liverpool, 12th mo. 1817.

The ports being closed, there is very little doing in flour and grain. No American, sweet, being in this market, it is difficult to say what a cargo, if opened, would bring—perhaps 65 or 66s. It is the general expectation that the ports will again open in February, in consequence of the crop of wheat in this country being so indifferent. But there is one thing to be taken into consideration—the average by which the caculation is made, is taken solely on grain grown in England, which, not being of so good a quality, will consequently not bring so high a price. The average price of wheat for the week ending the 22d Nov. was 83s 1 1 per quarter; and for the week ending 29th Nov. 84s 7d; but the average by which the closing or opening of the ports is determined, is taken only six weeks previous to the end of the quarter—that is on the last six weeks of the quarter. 84s. as you know, is the price which wheat must average to keep the ports open.

There were two arrivals yesterday from Philadelphia, the Superior and Telegraph, which brought about 4000 bbl. apples. The Euphrates and Importer, from New-York, are in to-day, bringing about 5000 more. The duty on apples is 3s 2d sterling per bushel; and from the great quantity arriving, I believe the shippers will lose money.

The Belvidera is the admiration of every one who goes on board of her here, and is considered the finest ship in port, which is quite flattering to the Baltimoreans. In addition to that, her captain, Hobson, is a gentleman much esteemed indeed.

The India business is rapidly increasing here—many houses largely engaged. ——— have a fine new ship just about sailing for India, which will make three by them in the trade, besides two fine ships now building for the same purpose.

From the Boston Repertory, Jan. 23.

We are indebted to Mr. Topliff for London papers of the 3d and 8th of December, from which we extract the following articles of intelligence.

The sloop of war Pike, capt. Buchan, had arrived at Portsmouth, in 11 days fr. St. Johns, Newfoundland, with intelligence of the destructive fires there. English Stocks Dec. 8 remained nearly stationary; 3 per cent red. 82 1-2. French funds gradually declining; 5 per cent 68 80. Intelligence from Constantinople, dated Nov. 4, states that the negotiations are going on between Russia and Persia, and that the present dispositions are friendly.

An attempt was made, Nov. 7, by a gang of robbers, 27 in number, to seize Lucien Bonsparte at his country seat, near Rome. They succeeded in carrying off Mr. Canes, a relative of Bonaparte, two servants, and Lucien's secretary, whom they mistook for Lucien himself. They approached the house in the disguise of the poorest class of peasants.

Charles Phillips has published a poem on the death of the Princess Charlotte, called the Lament of the Emerald Isle. The new novel, by William Godwin, called Mandeville, is just published

The British government has contracted with the emperor of Austria for 300,000 loads of timber, from the forests of Croatia and Dalmatia, for the use of the navy, to be received in part payment of the Austrian debt. It is said to be some of the finest naval timber in the world, and a contract has been made with two merchants for the conveyance of it from Trieste and the Dalmatian ports to England.

It is stated that an arrangement has been made with the Turkish government, by which Parga is permitted to be retained by the Ionian Islands.

Madame Krudener is on her return to Russia, accompanied by an officer of the police. The Spanish government is negotiating with some of the Swiss cantons for a corps of Swiss troops. The Russian squadron, bound to Cadiz, is reported to have sailed from Gottenburg Nov. 18. A Madrid article of Nov. 17 mentions that nothing is known of the conditions of the cession of this squadron by Russia. Lavelette is said to be living, under another name, near Munich.

From the National Advocate, Jan. 24.

The new Dey of Algiers has adopted an admirable mode, novel and somewhat extraordinary, for remedying the effects of the plague now ravaging that fine country. He has calculated, with all that gravity for which musselmen are remarkable, that disease and death can only be opposed by increasing population in equal ratio—by which equal effects will be balanced, and the state in the end, receive no injury. Accordingly he has ordered all bachelors over the age of 20 to be conducted to the public square, and then and there be bastinadoed until they acquire a relish for matrimony. This is a singular tax on bachelors; and if the regimen is daily repeated, we take it for granted that the old maids in the regency will shortly be supplied with husbands. As this may be considered a species of conscription perfectly constitutional in Turkey, and if a man has no soft or tender passions, and is, in no manner, a disciple of Ovid, Johannes Secundus, or Petrarch, the devil's in it if a good bastinadoing will not arouse feelings of some kind. It is however, strange to contemplate the adoption of new measures in a government where custom is the common law, and where no innovation is permitted. It is well known that polygamy, which is permitted by the musselmen code, is by no means favorable to population, but the early marriages are likewise a powerful obstacle. It is no uncommon occurrence for a boy of fourteen and a girl of twelve years marrying among mahometans. I recollect perfectly well an old Turk called Pfraud, who was in the habit of furnishing American vessels with provisions, etc. Pfraud spoke English perfectly well, and when he got on the deck of an American ship he felt all his veneration for the code of Mahomet dwindle away, and he drank wine and brandy in copious libations, the alcoran to the contrary notwithstanding. Pfraud in one of his merry moods, told me he was going to marry his son, a boy of sixteen, and that the procession would pass my door on a certain day. I took occasion to watch for it. Instead however of being in the narrow streets, the cavalcade passed without the walls; and this was the first matrimonial procession I had ever witnessed in that country. Two black slaves carried on their heads a dish of kuskisu, (an Arabic dish) handsomely ornamented and covered with colored silk handkerchiefs; two other slaves bore a large square wooden chest, painted with lively colors, containing the bride's dresses and clothing for a present. The bride herself was seated on a camel, whose ears, tail and long neck were decorated with various colored ribbons, but she was enclosed in a large baloon of silk, or species of cage, that with all my efforts, I could not get a peep at her; a few wind instruments in the shape of flagelets, together with a dull tambourine, constituted a wretched band of music: a motley assemblage of boys, camel drivers, etc. filled up the procession, which went to the house of the bridegroom; and the whole night the firing of muskets and noisy rebels of guests dipslayed the sum and measure of a Turkish marriage.

Turkish girls who are engaged in marriage, are generally kept close, and are fattened for the purpose, corpulency being considered a mark of beauty; and for this purpose they are fed with nutritious food and quantities of oil. The silver cloctures that they wear on their ancles are filled gradually, by increasing in flesh, and they are not unfrequently reported fit to marry, as we would pronounce a fat sheep fit for slaughter. They stain the palms of their hands and nails with the juice of an herb called benna, which produces a brown or dingy tint; they likewise color their eye brows, and the inside of their eye lids with lead ore. Thus corpulent and colored, it may be questionable whether the bastinadoing, ordered by the Dey of Algiers, might not be necessary to enforce an attachment that personal attractions, could they be seen, would fail to produce.

From the Hartford Times.

INGRATITUDE:—A FRAGMENT.

It was the latter end of autumn; the night was bleak and stormy, and from the deep abstraction into which the lateness of the hour, and the fitful music of the tempest had buried me, I was aroused by the pleading voice of a fellow being imploring shelter. I sprang to admit the unknown—it was a desolate unfriended man. But what mingled emotions of indignation and respect swelled my heart, when in his tattered dress, almost wore to threads by time and neglect, I discovered the sacred garb of a soldier! He unbared his arm, which in better days with the vigor of youth and the firmness of the patriot, had wielded the sword of freedom in the cause of his land. He shewed me with looks of sadness mingled with reproach, the vestiges of many a wound received on the embattled field in defence of his country. But oh! how altered was the form which for her had endured pain, hardships and privation; the flush of youth and health no longer sat upon his pallid cheek—The bright emanations of the patriot's soul lingered upon his brow, and faintly illumined his withered features like the radiant light of the setting sun, departing through surrounding clouds—I regarded him with unutterable feelings, and in the bitterness of indignation lamented the ingratitude of that country in whose defence he had exhausted his youth, health, friends and property, and received for his meed, cold neglect and scorn. On the very soil protected by his arm, and moistened with his blood, he wandered unsheltered, unpitied and forgotten, like an alien from his native home. Thankless and degraded country! exclaimed I—is it thus you cherish those who have shielded your liberties and honor from the menace of foreign and internal enemies? Shame upon thee, ungrateful country! Tremble lest in forgetting to cherish and reward them in your turn, like the sons of ancient Rome, they finally desert you, and your present liberties and glory perish forever, and after times attribute their declension to your ingratitude.

EARLY HISTORY.

A Narraganset Indian was formerly deputised by his tribe to represent them in some claim or petition to the government of the province, at Boston; but either his credentials not being admitted, or the claim not complied with, "our red brother" became so insolent and troublesome, that the magistrate at length ordered him a whipping. The report of this issue of his mission out stripped him in his return. So that when he came home his constituents with an arch countenance, enquired of him how he liked Boston. Ah! replied he, Boston folks are full of notions; which incident was the origin of that common saying.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

☞ Notice is given to persons desirous of obtaining work from the House of Industry, that application will have to be made by those residing between the east side of Fairfax street and the river, to John Harper; those residing between the west side of Fairfax and the east of Pitt street, to Charles Page—for the First Ward.

Second Ward...Those residing between the east of Fairfax street to the river, to John Adam; and from the west side of Fairfax to the east of Pitt street, to Bernard Bryan.

Third Ward...Those residing between the west side of Pitt to the east of Columbus street, to Isaac Robbins; from the west of Columbus street to West st. to Anthony Crease.

Fourth Ward...Those residing between the west side of Pitt street to the east of Alfred street, to James Lawrason; from the west of Alfred street to West street, to Jonathan Janney.

GOOD SOUP can be had every day, except Sunday, at the House of Industry, at the moderate price of four cents per quart. Families are solicited to send for it, particular attention being paid to the cooking—They will thereby give encouragement to the establishment by their example, and aid the beneficent design of feeding the hungry and clothing the naked. The poor can obtain it by application to the inspectors of the House of Industry.

READY MADE CLOTHING, such as shirts, frocks, sheets, trowsers, jackets, waistcoats, bags, candle-wick, &c. can be had at the House of Industry, at a moderate price. January 27

THEATRE.

☞ The Managers most respectfully announce to the citizens of Alexandria and its vicinity, that having an opportunity of gratifying the public curiosity, which has been so much excited by the feats of Mr. Pepin's COMPANY OF HORSES, they have availed themselves of it in order to evince their strong desire to ensure the approbation of those patrons who, during the theatrical season, honored the theatre with their support. Guided by these views, the Managers have made arrangements with Mr. Pepin, for

All his Horses,

TO PLAY EIGHT NIGHTS ONLY;

VIZ:

Two nights a week for four successive weeks.

On MONDAY EVENING, Feb. 2, Will be presented the grand spectacle of

TIMOUR the TARTAR,

WITH ENTIRE NEW SCENERY, MACHINERY, DRESSES AND DECORATIONS.

The scenery painted by Mr. Grain and assistants, the machinery by Messrs. Varden, Ashe and assistants.

Timour (Khan of the Afghan Tartars)	Mr. Caldwell
Agib (Prince of Mingrelia)	Mrs. Legg
Bermeddin	Mr. Carr
Abdalec	E. Emberton
Octar	Hayes
Kerim, rival chieftains in love with Sanballat	Parker
	Fatnell
Orasmin	Emberton
Oglou	Entwisle

Georgians, Tartars, Africans, &c. Messrs. Wynne, Stewart, &c.

Zorilda (Princess of Mingrelia)	Mrs. Entwisle
Selima (in love with Kerim)	Monier
Liska	Miss Trajetta

A description of the most prominent scenery, &c.

Act 1. The interior of Timour's Fortress, with a BRIDGE in the back ground—on one side of the stage a TOWER in which Agib is confined. A MAGNIFICENT PROCESSION of the Tartars over the Bridge on HORSEBACK, conducting Zorilda, who is mounted on a Courser richly caparisoned; the courser kneels and Zorilda dismounts.

Scene 3. A SPIRITED TOURNAMENT. Timour and Zorilda enter and seat themselves on thrones to witness the

Combat of Kerim & Sanballat,

who at that moment enter the LISTS on HORSEBACK. Kerim's Horse takes part in the combat, and drags Sanballat to the ground. Kerim dismounts and proposes to renew the combat on foot—the horses are led away and the fight begins. Kerim falls and loses his sword; his rival rushes to despatch him: at that instant, Kerim's Horse interposes to save his Master.

Sanballat in fury stabs the Horse,

Who falls and expires at his Master's feet.

Act 2. A splendid BRIDAL CHAMBER, belonging to Timour.

The Last Scene represents Timour's FORTRESS BY MOONLIGHT. A TREMENDOUS CATARACT & WATERFALL over which is an arched bridge. One side of the stage represents the EXTERIOR of Timour's Fortress. A variety of smaller Towers and Terraces appear in the perspective.

During this scene, the Georgians and Mingrelians engage the Tartars on horse and foot. Timour himself ON HORSEBACK appears and encourages his troops—he becomes personally engaged, and is dismounted—he is pursued and not having time to enter a PORTCULLIS leading to the interior of his castle, he climbs the battlements, and reaches in safety the TURRET'S TOP—he brings forth Zorilda and threatens to destroy her unless Agib, who has escaped to the Georgians, is restored to him—she breaks from him and runs to the bridge, from which she leaps into the water—Agib on horseback rushes after her.—The Georgians with a BATTERING-RAM make a breach in Timour's castle—ALL THE HORSES ENTER.—At the conclusion of the General Engagement, Agib having recovered his mother, returns with her on horseback. TIMOUR IS OVERTHROWN, but Zorilda spares his life at the intercession of Agib and Oglou.

PRECEDING THE SPECTACLE,

Will be presented the celebrated comedy called

Laugh when you can.

☞ Tickets and places for the boxes to be taken of Mr. Howard, at the Box Office on Monday from 10 o'clock till 2, and from 3 until the conclusion of the performance.

¶ The audience not only having been annoyed, but the managers seriously injured, by persons unlawfully descending from the gallery into the boxes, they give this early notice to say that none but persons of color can in future be admitted into it.

Doors to be opened at half past 5 and the curtain to rise at half past 6 precisely.

To the Flour and Rice Millers

OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—
the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the Uni ted States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would,
beginning with the year ending January 22, 1813, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due,
and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the ex penses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward for taking up and delivering to me in Alexandria, or lodging in jail so that I get him again, negro man WILLIAM, who eloped from Washington, D. C. (where he was hired) about 8 weeks ago. William is about 28 or 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, tolerably well made, yellow complexion, large mouth, very white teeth, and to the best of my recollection a scar on his right cheek—he is very fond of drink, and when intoxicated is a great reprobate and excessively noisy. His cloathing is not recollected, but as he received his wages before he started it is probable he has furnished himself with a new suit. BENJ. T. FENDALL.

CHARLES COUNTY COURT, August Term, 1817.

ON application to Charles County Court by petition in writing of James G. Bateman of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said James G. Bateman has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said James G. Bateman is in actual confinement for debt, and the said James G. Bateman having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said James G. Bateman be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, at Charlestown in said county, on the said third Monday of March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said James G. Bateman should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 9th day of December, 1817.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water,

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from Lee's Medicine Store, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst: sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
